

LATEST NEWS OF SPORT IN ITS VARIOUS BRANCHES.

THE EVENING
WORLD TIPS
WINNERS.

Daily Selections Far
Excel Those of Any Other Newspaper or Professional Tipster.

WON $145 YESTERDAY.

Following Unbiased Comparison
Made by Evening Sun Shows Relative Value of Various Handicappers' Work.

The Evening World has often made the claim that its selections on races run on the various race tracks on the metropolitan circuit far exceeded those of any newspaper or professional tipster.

To make a claim of this sort is easy.
All one has to do is to write it and put it in type. The proof, however, is furnished below. It is unbiased, it is impartial, it is the work of the Evening World, therefore, cannot be accused of manufacturing its own proof.

The Evening Sun each day wagers an imaginary $5 straight and $6 place on the selections made to win by the various newspapers. It also wagers an imaginary $5 for place on the second choice of the newspaper tipsters.

No sane man who ever went to a race track would think of betting his money any way for the simple reason that it is an almost impossible proposition to pick six races one-two and cash in on the day a winner.

It is the idea of the Evening Sun, no doubt, to show just how bad tipsters are. In spite of the handicap imposed in the way of betting The Evening World stands out alone in the winning column. Every other newspaper is a loser of hundreds of dollars.

The superior excellence of The Evening World's selections therefore must be admitted. They are based on public form alone. The handicap is the result of several hours' careful review of the horses, the comparison being made with due allowance for weight, jockey and distance. Class is reached through the basis of time.

Many handicappers sneer at time as an impossible factor in racing, yet it has enabled The Evening World to point out to its readers such long chances as Ethics, 20 to 1; Monte Carlo (two-year-old), 15 to 1; and many others.

The following tables, compiled by the Evening Sun, speak for themselves:

GREAT GOLF FIELD STARTS ON CHICAGO LINKS FOR CHAMPIONSHIP HONORS.

ARTHUR G. LOCKWOOD

ASCENSION WINS
THE THIRD RACE.
MORNING GALLOPS
AT SHEEPSHEAD.

Big Gun Takes the Hurdle Race from Philma Paxton—Track Lightning Fast and Crowd Big.

(Special to The Evening World.)
BRIGHTON BEACH RACE TRACK,
NEW YORK, July 15.—The Seagate Stakes, for three-year-olds, at a mile and furlong, was the feature, and a field of ordinary quality met, but they were well matched and the contest promised interesting results. The other races lacked in quality, but made up for it in quantity. No less than thirty-five maidens of all sorts were engaged in the last two races. The card promised all sorts of things in the way of long shots, and that is why the crowd turned out in large numbers.

The weather was cool and pleasant up to 1.30 o'clock, when black clouds in the Western horizon threatened a downpour. The track was lightning fast.

Hurdle Race: For four-year-olds and upward, mile and three-quarters.
